Invitation to be a Conference Sponsor

Memorandum

2017 (2)

To: Prospective Sponsors

From: Richard Buck, Conference Event Coordinator

Ref: Invitation

We would like to invite your organization to be a sponsor of one of the conferences we have planned for 2017 at the Wingate by Wyndham Hotel, Chantilly-Dulles on Rt. 50 near Rt. 28.

It is far more economical for your organization to be a co-sponsor (with 1 other organization) or a sponsor of one of our monthly conferences in 2017, instead of paying all the overhead of your own organization's conference.

Your very low co-sponsor ($250) or sponsor fee ($500) or if you wish to maximize your publicity and join the top tier of past conference participants your Primary Sponsor fee ($1000) will help pay for the venue room, e-newsletter and Facebook Fan Page promotions including paid Facebook ads and website promotion which also includes a link to your organization's website. Such promotions reached over 12,000 northern VA conservatives via Facebook for last month's conference.

Because this is an ongoing conference, we already have a base of supporters and attendees which will boost your organization's conference attendance larger than you could have done by organizing the conference without our help.

In effect, by being a co-sponsor of our conference you add on some staff and PR support without having to pay for it - your money goes for the room and the advertising only.

For more details visit FreedomLeadershipConference.org (check pull down menu, AGENDA). The 2017 dates we have booked with the hotel are on this letterhead. Our most recent conference on 2/16 was SRO with over 100 attendees. The previous 6 going back to 2016 were all full capacity in the room with us having to change to a new, better and larger venue as a result.

This letterhead contains a partial list of the over 75 sponsors of the past 18 years and the hundreds of speakers. If you have any questions or would like to ask for a date to be reserved you may contact the person who wrote to you or me at EventCoordinator@FreedomLeadershipConference.org.

We hope you will see the opportunity to advance your organization's agenda by making use of one of the limited dates available for this conference in 2017. Some of these dates will likely be taken by the time you read this so please act quickly before all of them are taken. Thank you.

PS. We invite the Executive Director or President of your organization to join us as our guest at the next conference. Must RSVP & be OKd.
