

Sponsors

Starting in 1999 as the Western Conservative Conference, those organizations which made the largest financial and/or staff commitment to support and organize the Freedom Leadership Conference were Primary Sponsors, followed by the Sponsor and finally the Co-Sponsor organizations.

Under the new meeting format adopted in late 2012, there is now no financial requirement for a conservative cause organization to be a sponsor of the monthly Freedom Leadership Conference in Northern Virginia, and they are listed as Sponsors (below) when they have been assigned a date. There is an upgrade available for those organizations which may wish a more deluxe venue, i.e. as was done at the 12/5/12 conference at the Marriott Courtyard Tysons Corner, VA. These sponsors provide the keynote speaker and are provided 30 minutes total for the evening program for a conference.

We are grateful to the past Sponsors of the Freedom Leadership Conference.

 indicates that this sponsor organization is scheduled in the future from the date of this posting (not the past as are the others).*

Conservatives meeting monthly in Northern Virginia

If you are a conservative leader, activist, or donor...

You are invited to make application for a complimentary membership in a new private, weeknight conference series in Northern Virginia, established 14 years ago as an annual event, now monthly.

Should you be a speaker or a member of this Conference?

Statement of Purpose, history & Membership Application

More information:

<http://FreedomLeadershipConference.org>

Monthly Meeting invitations are for approved members & provisional members who RSVP for admission. Full members qualify for membership in the Leadership Council, which meets over dinner with the Keynote Speaker each month.

14 years (1999-2013)

Founded in 1999 as the Western Conservative Conference, changed to American Leadership Conference and finally to Freedom Leadership Conference in Northern VA

Statement of Purpose

Statement of Purpose for the Freedom Leadership Conference, the full-spectrum Conservative 912 Tea Party sympathizing, after dinner, networking social club & meeting site for conservative activists, supporters, spokesmen, advocates and leaders.

1. We consider ourselves to be full-spectrum conservatives who find much we admire and agree with in the recent rise of the 912 Tea Party Patriots rebellion. While we do appreciate the newcomers joining our cause, we also appreciate the long history of “resistance to socializing the very air we breathe” as Wm. F. Buckley put it some 50 years ago, the movement which began over 30 years ago to activate Christian conservative voters and the work of national security concerned Americans in the public policy process.

2. We deeply respect those who came before us in making a stand against modern day liberalism and its close ally the radical left, whose policy proposals are so often indistinguishable from socialism and its more forceful cousin, Communism and several decades earlier, National Socialism and all other forms of totalitarian control over the mind and body of mankind.

3. We express solidarity with and support for Israel and all who yearn to breathe free and who look to America as a symbol of freedom. We believe with strong faith that we are all here as a result of an intelligent design of a Creator who made us for a Purpose and that our actions today echo in eternity.

4. General agreement on philosophy does not mean we agree with every particular tenet of other conservatives, or support exactly the same candidates for public office or espouse the exact same approach to every public policy issue. Despite any such differences among our members, we will all maintain an atmosphere of comfortable, respectful collegiality toward one another.

5. We are in general agreement with the principles expressed in THE THURMONT STATEMENT – first adopted in conference at the 9th annual Freedom Leadership Conference on November 11, 2009, read for the first time at that conference by the Statement’s co-author, writer and columnist Quin Hillyer, and reviewed annually, see <http://ThurmontStatement.org>.

6. We wish to associate in a private forum with like-minded people in our community for fellowship, for the purpose of influencing public policy and holding our public officials accountable to the transcendental values; to support other like-minded organizations, individuals and government officials who champion our values actively in our community; educating our neighbors and mobilizing them to take action in defense of American values.

7. We will share ideas, strategies and plans for how we can be more effective both as individuals and allied together in various organizations and associations, including this one.

8. For these purposes and others as may be determined by our fellowship, we will gather together periodically in our community and invite outside speakers who share our purpose, to speak with and engage with us in fellowship and to share their knowledge, ideas and proposals, under the banner of the Freedom Leadership Conference (<http://FreedomLeadershipConference.org>), originally established as an annual conference co-sponsored with dozens of conservative organizations in 1999.

9. A video-recorded portion of the remarks of our speakers, plus a written version (which may be revised and extended) will be made available on the public portion of our website and for distribution by those of our members who are so inclined. Except for this section, no other part of our meetings may be recorded but will be kept private in order to encourage robust, candid and collegial discussion of issues.

10. While our meetings will be private and by invitation only to those accepted as members or as provisional members, we will seek out those who share our purposes as stated here, and who agree to abide by the rules we establish (and from time to time may amend) for governing our informal association. Such invitation will only be made to those who have clearly established by their past actions and statements that their commitment to these principles herein described are reliable and truthful.

Popular Rep. Robert Dornan keynotes last “Western Conservative Conference” - which was then renamed & moved east
