

Thurs., April 13, 2017

7 to 9 PM Conference

doors open 6:30 PM

5:30 PM Diner

dinner with Larry Pratt, doors open 5 PM

Patriots' Day, celebrated the third Monday in April each year, commemorates the battles of Lexington and Concord in 1776, the start of the American War for Independence. When you hear liberals whine about Donald Trump and they use the word "resist" remember they know nothing about history.

"Resistance" to tyranny started with the British attempt to seize American weapons and munitions and arrest those speaking out for freedom, Samuel Adams and John Hancock. Paul Revere, one of the heroes of the American Revolution, rode to warn the Minute Men and help them prepare for "the shot heard round the world."

Today Larry Pratt is in so many ways, a modern day Paul Revere with his many years of work to warn Americans about the destruction of the rights earned for us starting on Patriots Day of 1775.

It is time to stop with "resist" and move forward with advancing to restore our rights under President Trump.

We hope you will join us to learn more on April 13 at this Conference and if possible come early to have dinner with Larry Pratt & our Conference Leadership.
